—On Christmas eve, little Hamilton Lowd, son of Capt. W. Q. Lowd, met with quite a serious and painful accident. Several little boys were firing a toy cannon, which anddenly exploded, the whole contents taking effect in his leg, which was near the muzzle. The cannon, fortunately, had bothing but powder in it, but the wound believed is quite severe, and will confine whe little fellow to his bed for some time. We are glad to know he is doing well.
